

Living Independence Network Corporation

Equipment Specialist/Independent Living Specialist

Do you love working with and alongside people with disabilities? Are you motivated by empowering people in meeting their goals? Ready for a job with a great schedule and a benefits package?

We are hiring for an Equipment Specialist in our Boise office. We educate, support, and encourage people with disabilities to live the life of their choosing. If this sounds like a fit, we invite you to join our movement and apply to be on our team. Full and part-time options are available. Individuals with disabilities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Experience:

- At least 1-year mobility or other equipment repair
- Assistive Technology or related certification (preferred)
- Experience working with a team

Extra Credit:

Personal or professional experience with the disability community

Responsibilities:

- Create an environment that promotes self-direction and encourages individuals to achieve their desired level of independence.
- Work directly with consumers to meet their needs for Assistive Technology, Durable Medical Equipment or Wheelchair Ramps.
- Create and maintain accurate documentation in accordance with LINC policies and procedures.
- Manage accurate inventory records of all equipment.
- Work with outside organizations and the general public to develop partnerships with a focus on program growth.
- Effectively manage the cleaning, maintenance, and reconditioning of donated equipment while making decisions about the cost versus benefit of each item.
- Maintain detailed records of all transactions and provide receipts as necessary.
- Manage equipment programs in collaboration with area agencies or internal programs and events.
- Make occasional equipment deliveries or ramp builds off site.

How to apply:

Please send a cover letter, resume, and three references to lsullivan@lincidaho.org. If you need a reasonable accommodation to apply, please contact LeAnn Sullivan at (208) 336-3335 ext. 211.

Pay Range: $21.72 - $29.75 (based on experience)

Application Deadline: August 8, 2024
